Wound site inspected; no erythema, discharge or dehiscence. Dressing changed using aseptic technique. Advised to keep the area dry for a further 48 hours and to return sooner if fever develops.

Discussed activity modification and a graded return to normal load over the coming six weeks. Written instructions were provided and the patient demonstrated understanding by teach-back before discharge.

Clinical impression at the close of the encounter was chronic lower back pain, stable since the last visit; no change to current therapy. The plan was discussed with the patient, who agreed to the proposed follow-up interval and was given written instructions to take home.
